

Public debate on book about Eichmann

A week-end meeting will be devoted to a discussion of Hannah Arendt's controversial book: "Eichmann in Jerusalem".

The symposium is being organised by the Workers' Educational Association of N.S.W. and the Department of Tutorial Classes at the University of Sydney.

The president of the Australian section of the International Commission of Jurists, Mr. E. St. John, Q.C., will deliver the opening address, "The trial and its implications", on Saturday, April 25.

The first day's second lecture will be "The man and the movement", by the acting assistant director of the

MR. I. LEIBLER

Tutorial Classes Department,
Mr. W. H. C. Eddy.

Two Jewish speakers, both from Melbourne, will speak on the second day.

Mr. I. Leibler, honorary secretary of ECAJ, will speak of "Jewish Leadership and of "Jewish Leadership and resistance to totalitarianism".

The final lecture will be by Dr. F. Knopfelmacher, a lecturer in psychology at Melbourne University. He will speak on "Reactions to the book—some remarks on the evils of banality".

A discussion will follow the lectures. Tickets for the full course, or for single lectures, are available.
